About Us

Precision Fitness is the new wave in fitness options — personal training affordable enough for the average person to have their own custom body shop.

Achieve a new level of fitness based on the one-on-one attention of a private gym, taking advantage of proven health and fitness concepts, and at a truly affordable per-session training price.

No intimidation, no crowds, and none of the nightclub atmosphere all too common in public training facilities. Instead, our mature and professional trainers will develop weight training and cardio-vascular exercise programs, along with nutritional planning and advice, just for you.

Precision Fitness eliminates the high costs traditionally associated with personal training and offers the structure and experience of an established fitness enterprise.
